- d) "Buyer with consumer rights" - a natural person concluding a contract directly related to his/her business activity, when the content of this contract shows that it does not have a professional character for this person, resulting in particular from the subject of his/her business activity, made available under the provisions of on the Central Registration and Information on Business Activity
- e) "Goods" – the whole range of products offered by the Seller.

1.2. These General Terms and Conditions of Sale constitute an integral part of the quotations made by the Seller, the orders placed by the Buyers and the contracts of sale and delivery executed between the Seller and the Buyer.

1.3 General Terms and Conditions of Sale are available at www.gamet.eu

1.4. The General Terms and Conditions of Sale do not apply to the extent regulated differently in a separate written agreement concluded between the Seller and Buyer and in relations with consumers, referred to in Article 22(1) of the Civil Code, to which the provisions of the Consumer Rights Act apply.

1.5. General Terms and Conditions of Sale apply in relations with Buyers with consumer rights to the extent not conflicting with the provisions of law, in particular with the provisions of the Consumer Rights Act.

2. Orders

2.1. The Buyer shall place orders either in writing, via fax, email, B2B platform, or verbally (Seller's confirmation required for order validity) and specifies in particular the following:

- a. name and code of the Goods as used by the Seller,
- b. quantity of the Goods,
- c. suggested delivery date, subject to item 3.1.,
- d. exact delivery address of the Buyer.

2.2. Buyer with consumer rights when placing an order is obliged to make a statement that the order is not related to his professional activity.

2.3. Upon order placement, the Buyer unconditionally agrees to the contents of the GCS and the exclusive application of the provisions of the GCS, unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Buyer and the Seller.

It is assumed that the person placing an order with the Seller has been authorised by the Buyer to perform such activities on the Buyer's behalf and in the Buyer's name.

2.4. Any forecasts specifying the expected demand for the Goods of the Seller in a given period of time which are submitted by the Buyer shall be deemed by the Seller as orders and they become binding for both Parties once confirmed as accepted in accordance with the provisions of the GCS. Thereby the Buyer shall purchase from the Seller all the Goods specified in a confirmed forecast in accordance with the terms and conditions of order execution confirmed by the Seller. Any forecast shall only cover a period of up to three consecutive months, unless the Parties agree otherwise.

2.5. For a contract of sale or delivery to be validly concluded, the Seller needs to confirm and acknowledge the acceptance of the order in writing, via email or by fax within 3 Polish working days of receiving it. The Seller's failure to reply shall not be deemed as order acceptance.

2.6. The Seller can confirm and acknowledge the acceptance of the order subject to changes. In such case the changed contract of sale or delivery takes effect, unless the Buyer withdraws the order within 2 Polish working days of receiving the order acceptance confirmation. The order withdrawal has to be made in writing or in electronic form.

2.7. If the Buyer withdraws the order after the deadline referred to under item 2.5., the Seller shall charge to the Buyer an amount equivalent to the price of the Goods and the additional costs related to the order withdrawal. The additional costs include in particular the costs of storage, reworking the Goods into other goods which can be resold to other Buyers within one month of the Buyer's withdrawal or costs of scrapping if it is impossible to rework the Goods or resell them within the deadline stipulated above.

2.8. Any new client or company which previously did not submit to the Seller any registration documents shall provide together with the order the information from the Central Register and Information on Economic Activity or a copy from the National Court Register –depending on the legal form of business activities.

2.9 In the event of any changes to the name, address, method of company representation, phone numbers, e-mail addresses etc., the Seller shall be promptly provided with documents (with originals made available for inspection or certified copies) or statements substantiating the occurrence of the changes.

2.10. Any correspondence, notifications and other statements shall be in writing and given between the Parties in person, via registered letter, fax or e-mail to the addresses or fax numbers specified in the contract, orders or documents provided in accordance with item 2.9.

2.11. Until the other Party has been notified of the change to the address, phone numbers, e-mail addresses in writing via registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt, the letters served on the currently known addresses, e-mail addresses or fax numbers specified in the contract, order or documents referred to under item 2.9. shall be deemed effectively served between the Parties.

2.12. Any letters sent via registered mail or registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt which the other Party fails to collect shall be deemed served upon expiry of 7 (seven) days of sending. Fax or e-mail messages shall be deemed received by the Buyer 24 hours after sending.

3. Completion of deliveries

3.1. The term for delivery shall be specified in the Seller's quotation sent in response to a request for quotation or in the Seller's confirmation of acceptance of the order from the Buyer.

3.2. The transportation costs shall be charged to the Buyer, unless otherwise agreed in writing or via e-mail between the Seller and the Buyer.

3.3. Upon the Goods release from the Seller's warehouse, the Buyer shall be liable for the risk of accidental loss or damage to the Goods.

3.4. If the Seller is to deliver the Goods to a destination point named by the Buyer, the risk of accidental loss or damage to the Goods shall pass to the Buyer upon the release of the Goods from the Seller's warehouse to the carrier.

3.5. If the Buyer refuses to accept the Goods, the Buyer shall bear all the costs incurred by the Seller in connection with the contract performance, including in particular the costs of storage, irrespective of the obligation to pay the price for the Goods.

3.6. The Seller shall not be liable for any failure to meet the sale or delivery deadline if any circumstances occur which are unforeseeable, independent and prevent the Seller from performing the Seller's obligations in whole or part, which could not be avoided even if all due care was exercised, and which under Polish law or Polish commercial practice are deemed as Force Majeure. Under the present GCS, the Force Majeure circumstances shall include in particular strikes, blockades of roads, ports, or other commonly used enter and exit points, earthquake, flood, hurricane, epidemic, and other events the Seller could not overcome, and did not and could not foresee, and which are also external to the Seller itself and to the Seller's business. The sale or delivery deadline can be extended by a period of time equal to the duration of the Force Majeure circumstances named above.

3.7. The Seller shall notify the Buyer of the occurrence of any obstacles preventing the completion of delivery within 14 days of the Force Majeure occurrence.

3.8. If the circumstances referred to under item 3.6 occur, the Seller shall not be liable for any damage incurred by the Buyer.

3.9. If a situation defined as Force Majeure circumstances as referred to under item 3.6. above prevails for a continuous period of more than 30 days, both the Buyer and the Seller shall have the right to withdraw from the contract.

4. Price and terms of payment

4.1. Unless specified otherwise, the prices of the Goods are net prices exclusive of VAT (EXW Toruń Poland – Incoterms 2010). The prices do not include any Goods loading, transportation and unloading costs.

4.2. Payments shall be made by bank transfer to the bank account of the Seller specified on the invoice. The Buyer shall pay all and any fees and charges related to the bank transfer. The price shall be deemed paid when money is credited to the bank account of the Seller.

4.3. If the Buyer orders items not included in the catalogue offer, the Seller may additionally charge to the Buyer the costs of tooling, unless agreed otherwise in an individual written quotation of the Seller or in the order confirmation.

4.4. Any settlements shall be made against VAT invoices made out by the Seller within a time period specified under applicable legal regulations, unless the Parties agree otherwise.

4.5. The terms of payment shall be determined by the Seller in the quotations, contracts, and order acceptance confirmations.

4.6. In the event of delay in payment, the Seller has the right to charge statutory interest to the Buyer for delay in business transactions on any outstanding amount not paid on time.

4.7. If the Buyer delays with payment for the Goods, the Seller has the right to withhold the order completion until a full payment has been received for the Goods sold.

4.8. The Seller has the right to ask for an advance payment or an additional payment security before the release or shipment of the Goods if the delivery value exceeds the debt limit allowed or if the delivery value and the debt already existing for any previous deliveries exceeds the debt limit allowed, and also whenever the Buyer is in arrears with any payments for previous deliveries. The Seller shall also have the right to stop, without any financial or legal consequences, the deliveries of the Goods until the outstanding liabilities for previous deliveries have been paid by the Buyer.

4.9. If the Buyer makes an advance payment to the Seller towards the order placed and fails to collect the ordered items, the Seller retains the advance payment to cover the costs related to cancellation of the order (item 2.6.).

4.10. If during the completion of an order the Seller becomes aware of any deterioration in the financial standing of the Buyer, the Seller has the right to change the cooperation terms and conditions agreed earlier.

5. Complaints

5.1. Any complaints with regard to the Goods are dealt with in accordance with the complaint procedure as enclosed with these GCS and found at <http://www.gamet.eu/warunkisprzedazy/en/> website.

5.2. No complaint notified by the Buyer gives him the right to withhold the payment of the price for the Goods purchased.

6. Transfer of rights and obligations and set-off

6.1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Buyer and the Seller, the Buyer shall not transfer any of the Buyer's rights or obligations under the contracts of sale or delivery made between the Seller and the Buyer nor set off any amount owing to the Buyer against any amount owing to the Seller.

7. Confidentiality
